

ROAN HOLDINGS GROUP CO., LTD.
CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

I. PURPOSE

The primary function of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by overseeing ROAN HOLDINGS GROUP CO., LTD.’s (the “Company”) systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that management and the Board have established; the Company’s accounting and financial reporting processes; and the audits of the financial statements of the Company. Consistent with this function, the Committee should encourage continuous improvement of, and should foster adherence to, the Company’s policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Committee’s primary duties and responsibilities are to:

- Serve as an independent and objective party to monitor the Company’s financial reporting process and internal control system.
- Review and appraise the audit efforts of the Company’s independent accountants and internal auditor.
- Provide an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, financial and senior management, and the Board.
- Prepare the report of the Committee required by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) to be included in the Company’s proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders.

The Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Sections IV through VII of this Charter.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall meet the independence and experience requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (“Nasdaq”), Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the SEC. All members of the Committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, and at least one member of the Committee shall be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the SEC and have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the member’s financial sophistication, as required by the rules of Nasdaq.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the annual meeting of the Board or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Unless a Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership. Any member of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least as frequently as circumstances dictate and shall periodically meet in executive session without management. Any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee.

As part of its job to foster open communication, the Committee should meet periodically with management, the independent accountants and the internal auditor in separate sessions, if requested, to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe should be discussed privately.

The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's or the Committee's outside counsel, independent accountants or internal auditor, or other consultants and advisors to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of the Committee.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Committee shall:
